An experienced substitute teacher and certified Media Specialist, I enjoy using a wide variety of resources and approaches to encourage inquiry driven learning in diverse student populations. By helping students learn to access information in a variety of formats, I help students become independent thinkers who grow into informed adults.

Working on a day to day basis, I substitute primarily in Media, Art and Technology. As a long-term substitute Media Specialist, I have written lesson plans, submitted grades, hosted Book Fairs, maintained collections, and performed inventories. At Glendale, I provided library service for their summer school. A full listing of my locations, as well as my internships, can be found in my portfolio.

Library Associate

Howard County Library: Glenwood Branch	2000 - 2007
--	-------------

Working in the children's department, I planned and presented story time programs for infants and children, helped maintain the collection, and was involved in the A+ Partnership with the Howard County Public School System.

Library Assistant

Towson University: Cook Library	1999 - 2000

Greeting students and staff, I provided directional services, monitored security devices, assisted the Circulation Department, and closed the library.

Non-Library Teaching Experience

Summer School Paraeducator

Howard County: Wilde Lake Middle School Summer Session II 2018
Supporting the GT program, I help ensure a safe and fun learning experience for grades K-8.

Children's Art Teacher

Roxy's Art 2018 - Present
Using my own lessons, I teach acrylic and watercolor painting for small groups of children.

Other Work Experience

Retail Associate

Family Game Store 2007 - 2015
Helping customers find the right board or card game for them, I was also part of the purchasing department and web-store team. I periodically return as a substitute during non-school hours, and provide summer help as part of the web-store team.
